Dear FCS Parents,

The Teaching Museum is pleased to bring Serenbe Playhouse's production of Peter Pan to Fulton County Schools. Through this "world premiere musical pirate adventure," the tale of Peter Pan continues with new adventures for Peter, Tinker Bell and the Lost Boys.

Your child's grade level will be attending this performance at the Teaching Museum North on September 25th. We would like to make you aware that due to the nature of this production—and to remain true to the tale of Peter Pan—the performance includes a stage fight scene with prop weaponry (i.e. a sword and dagger). The use of these stage props is limited solely to the actors on stage and students will not handle any props. All theatrical fighting was choreographed by a certified stage and screen choreographer and is appropriate for family audiences.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact your school's administrative team. We look forward to introducing your child to this classic tale through live theatre!

Best,

Jena Sibille

Peter Pan* is coming to the Teaching Museum!

"Peter Pan: A World Premiere Musical Pirate Adventure" is a clever, well-written and wonderfully conceived sequel to Barrie's original.
